Dear Roy,

Thanks for contacting me and offering your service as solution to my dilemma. As you are aware of, my attempts to find business through advertising proved unsuccessful and the bill associated with my experiment proved to be unaffordable. I was given poor representation and the process was going nowhere. I found no increase in business whatsoever and I was left holding a large debt for advertising. I had nothing to pay the debt. You contacted me and explained how your service could help. You gave me some hope that the issue could be resolved.

My sense of responsibility and fair play had me entangled with a collector on this claim very deeply. Precious funds were being pulled from my operating account with little impact on the debt or the resolution of the debt itself. With hard work and persistence, the ReorgGroup and I were able to come to an agreement with this creditor that was both equitable and affordable.

Thanks to you and your staff for working thorough this financial challenge, I now have the opportunity to move on with the business in a better way.

Sincerely,

Leon R. Clayberger
